FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Groveland – Please be advised that the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (Cal Fire) will be conducting a prescribed burning operation on the Pine Mountain Lake Vegetation Management Program site located north of Ferretti Road between Tioga High School and Rocky Point Drive.

Burning operations will be between October 20th and October 23rd from 9:00am to 5:00 pm.

Cal Fire does not expect any traffic delays on Ferretti Road, but motorists should be aware of any signs and/or traffic control personnel in the area. As always, please use caution in the area and slow for fire and road personnel.

For more information, please see the attached Cal Fire news release of October 15, 2023. The public can also contact the Public Works Department at (209) 533-5601, option #1 or Cal Fire (209) 419-4416 with any questions or concerns.

The public can continue to monitor road closures on the County website:
